Warning Similar to One

A death-threat telephone message yesterday from blackmailers to D. W. Straub, retired street railway magnate, who is the second wealthy citizen to be attacked by blackmailers within a week, caused police last night to place a heavy guard about Straub's home.

The message to Straub threatened himself and wife with death unless he paid $5000 at once to the blackmailers in accordance with a note which he received Monday.

The other case was that of Homer Laughlin, capitalist owner of the Laughlin Building, who last week was told by a man who was left in a certain secluded spot.

The note received by Straub from the man said that he had $5000 from the bank and keep it on hand to turn over to the blackmailers. The note threatened him with death if he failed to make the demand was met. It bore the signature, "A Shast."

Straub communicated with University immediately after receiving the phone message. He stated that the man who had spoken to him was a blackmailer and he would be killed unless he co-operated fully with the blackmailers.

While the policemen sought the house of the detective in motion an extended search for the blackmailers. Straub came to Los Angeles from San Francisco and was at 1324 West Twenty-first street.

The assembly, by resolution, adopted a resolution declaring "unquivocally in favor of Sabbath observance," and pledged itself to work for such observance.

The assembly calls upon its members everywhere to use their influence to make Sunday a day of "rest, worship and home life."

The assembly, by resolution, al-

commended President Coolidge's action in refusing to sanction Armistice Day as Mobilization Day.

"We also approve his (President Coolidge's) suggestion to relate Armistice Day definitely with thoughts of peace," the resolution read.

Concerning naval and military maneuvers, the convention went on record as standing for peace and good will in the relations between this nation and the rest of mankind.

Highest Infant Mortality Rate Held by Mexico

(BY CABLE-EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)

MEXICO CITY, July 9. — Mexico heads the nations of the world in the tragic record of infant mor-

A score of nations are included in the infant mortality list compiled here. Hungary and Chile are second in the number of infant deaths, with twenty-six out of every 100 succumbing, while New Zealand has the best record, with five-and-a-half out of every 100.

The figures show 93,349 recorded births in Mexico in four years, with the death toll among them as 7,918. The great majority of these infants died on the day of birth. Intestinal diseases and poverty are given as the chief causes.

Benedict Elder of Louisville, secretary of the Catholic Press Association of the United States. Callahan for three years was chairman of the commission on religious prejudice. He has been a friend of Bryan for many years. The two had a talk with Bryan, after which Callahan said:

pathy for Bryan and the State of Tennessee among the Catholics of America. A great many of our people are highly indignant at the ribald abuse which has been heaped upon the splendid stand by the newspaper men and non-religionists of certain sections.

"It is a pleasure for me to say that there is no evidence of a desire on the part of a large part of my constituents to criticize the State of Tennessee for having enacted this law. The alleged violation of which young Scopes is to be tried. I would look upon the education of the child as a matter in which the most scrupulous care should be taken and the greatest degree of prudence exercised. The attacks upon Tennessee from the outside for seeking to exercise such prudent care seem to me to be invidious. Whether or not the act of the Legislature was expedient may be a question but it was a question for the Legislature and

At all events, however, one man from him, the efforts of the great Commoner deserve the Christian faith of the young of Tennessee, and he is entitled to respect."

Mr. Elder explained that he thought it quite probable that the case adduced at the trial would

...that the defendant had not actually violated the Tennessee
statute, notwithstanding it was his intention to do so, as the act has two parts, both of which must be broken
to constitute a violation in
that the theory taught must deny
the Biblical account of creation
of "man in the image of God."

And, as it is a penal statute under which actual rules of legal interpretation must be strictly construed, the act is not violated unless the defendant has done other things prohibited," he said.

Moreover, the act does not prohibit teaching a theory which denies this or that theological interpretation put upon the biblical account of creation by various schools. In order to violate the law, the theory taught, it would seem, must deny the biblical account.

... according to any possible interpretation, literal or figurative, may be doubted if the defendant put such a theory.

The Legislature in passing the act did not adopt any particular interpretation of the biblical account of creation or declare the same to be literally or figuratively

Judge John T. Raulston of Winston-Salem, who will preside at the trial, added a distinct religious dimension to the courtroom proceedings when he gave a formal statement today in which he asked that the trial be "a search for truth, not a quest for personal gratification." He said that the trial should be "a search for truth, not a quest for personal gratification." He said that the trial should be "a search for truth, not a quest for personal gratification."

He is a strong fundamentalist. It will be through no ruling of the court, it is indicated, that the connection between religion and science be kept out of the testimony. The "life or liberty" is at stake, the defendant probably would not be convicted. The bar-

vidence may be considered unless the defense changes

Mary Browne is Upset by Eleanor Goss

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE)

EAST PROVIDENCE (R. I.) July 9.—The biggest upset of the annual Rhode Island State tennis championships at the Agawam Hunt Club occurred this afternoon when Miss Eleanor Goss of New York eliminated Miss Mary K. Browne of California in straight sets, 6-2, 8-6.

Mrs. Mollie Mallory narrowly escaped defeat at the hands of Mrs. Marion Jessup, but won, 8-6, 6-0, 8-6. These matches were semifinals.

Miss Goss's hard driving, aggressive net play and strong service was too much for Miss Browne. Mrs. Mallory made a great rally when the score stood one set each and she called Mrs. Jessup, 6-1, in the last set. She retired off the next six games with Mrs. Jessup never getting above 30 points.

The last survivor of the Japanese trio, T. Harada, was eliminated in the singles and doubles.

Providence defeated Harada, 6-4, 8-4, in the singles. The western collegiate doubles team of Chandler and Stew defeated Harada and Carl Fischer of Cynwyd, 6-3, 6-4.

VISITORS BUNCH BINGLES OFF PAYNE TO WIN TILT

Ellison Features by Driving Over Four Seal Tallies and Scoring Another; Angel Rally Fails

BY ROBERT E. RAY

Lightning never strikes twice in the same place, they say. But Mr. Bert Ellison's San Francisco Seals do. They even go one better and strike three times in the same spot, thus proving that the Seals are more dangerous than lightning—to the Angels. All of which is merely a way of getting around stating that the Seals made it three in a row over the skidding Seraphs by taking yesterday lukewarm pastime, 6 to 3.

The Angels are skidding all right, and the Seals are supplying the blubber to make the sliding easier.

None other than Mr. Ellison himself accounted for the undoing of the already well-done Angels.

Jeff Pfeffer, who is so tall that he is just inside the Los Angeles height-limit law for buildings, did the hurling—that is, most of it—for the Seals and for eight innings he allowed the Cherubs one run.

That the result of a potent poke over the left-field wall by Wally Hood, in the ninth Pfeffer weakened so much that two runs were scored, two more Angels were on and there was none out when he was lifted in favor of Bill Crockett. Crockett got three men out in a hurry and halted the Angels as quickly that most of the fans were jerked out of their seats by the sudden stop.

PAYNE VICTIM

George Payne and his screw-ball were delegated by Marty Krug to stop the Seals. George stuck around until the game was over, but the Seals socked him for fourteen hits and are going yet.

For some reason or other, the same squads will tangle again today. Whitney Glanzer and Doug McWeney slated to do the hurling. There is some talk of making the Seals give the Angels a two-run handicap, but it is doubtful if that will be the result.

FIGHT GYMS TO BE TAXED

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)

SACRAMENTO, July 9.—Owners of gymnasiums to which admission is charged to witness boxers in training must obtain a license from the State Athletic Commission and pay 5 per cent of the gross receipts to the State Attorney General.

Another ruling made by Webb will subject the promoters of strictly amateur boxing contests to which an admission fee is charged to the provisions of the State boxing law. Yarwood said that it will be necessary to have a physician and a State boxing inspector present at the amateur shows and to turn over to the State 5 per cent of the gross receipts.

SWAT PALACE VICE CAFE

Providing the State Boxing Commission approves, Southern California will obtain another fight stadium. Tommy Jacobs, remembered by old-time fans as a successful owner of the leathers and more recently known as a cafe man, has announced his application to the boxing heads for permission to promote fistfights in Venice. Jacobs plans construction of an arena at the intersection of Venice and Washington Boulevards, near the Venice city limits. The fight house is to rise on the site of the Log Cabin Inn Cafe, which was recently dismantled.

PUTNEY IS SCENE OF CUP RACE

Walter Hoover Meets English Oarsman in Race for Philadelphia Trophy

(BY CARL AND ASSOCIATED PRESS)

HENLEY-ON-THAMES, July 9. The race between Jack Baresford, Jr., crack English oarsman, and Walter M. Hoover of Philadelphia for the Philadelphia gold challenge cup, which Baresford won at the Paris Olympics last year, will be rowed Monday on the tidal Thames at Putney.

Baresford told the Associated Press today he had agreed with Hoover regarding details of the race. They will start at 6:15 p.m. Monday over a course of about a mile and a half.

Baresford repeated that he intends to return the cup to the Philadelphia committee, regardless of the result of this race.

Baresford eliminated Hoover in the diamond sculls during this year's Henley regatta. Hoover went to England principally to challenge Baresford for the Philadelphia gold cup, which in America has been considered emblematic of the amateur singles sculling championship of the world. It developed recently that the British do not attach this significance to the cup, and Baresford declined to race Hoover for it.

Dazzy Vance Brings Dodgers Out of Losing Slump

Cards Upset Braves; Phils. Reds Divide a Pair

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE)
NEW YORK, July 9.—The Giants drew an even break with the Pirates in a double-header today, dropping the opener, 12 to 1, and winning the second game, 7 to 5. One game continues to separate the New York club from the leaders. Small Eddy allowed the Giants' first, while his teammates whacked out sixteen bingles.

McGraw used four pitchers. Meadows' circuit wallop with two on base figured in the only Giants' tallies.

George Kelly's homer with two on the sacks in the seventh inning decided the second game in which the New Yorkers collected sixteen hits off Johnny Morrison and Babe Adams.

Wayland Dean went the route for the Giants and yielded ten runs, including a home run by Eddie Moore.

Gowdy, veteran New York catcher, was put out of the second game for protesting a decision.

RABBIT PUNCHES

BUD TAYLOR is a hero and nothing else but in his home town of Terre Haute.

When he returned from his recent victorious invasion to the Pacific Coast he was met at the railroad station by the Terre Haute Shriner and a flock of elephants, upon one of which he was hoisted aboard and propelled down the city streets amid the cheers of delighted supporters.

But that isn't all. The day following the parade the Terre Haute newspapers adorned the front pages of their editions with four-column outbursts of praise for the hero.

SCHOELL AND SHADE MATCHED

North End A.C. to Stage Match in San Francisco

Leo P. Flynn Accepts Bout by Phone for August 8

California is Guaranteed a Purse of $10,000

SAN FRANCISCO, July 8.—Dave Shade will fight ten rounds with Frankie Schoell under the auspices of the North End A.C. at Ewing Field on Saturday, August 8.

Leo P. Flynn, made this agreement today with Kid Herman, one of the promoters over the long-distance telephone this afternoon and said that Shade would come to San Francisco notwithstanding negotiations are still under way.

Shade, who also talked with Herman, confirmed the acceptance of the match.

Flynn declared absolutely that Shade's prior engagements would not prevent him from fighting here on Saturday, August 8, and as the Seals will play one of their regularly scheduled games at home on August 8, the promoters made arrangements to move to Ewing Field.

SECURE EWING FIELD This was arranged through Ed Lynch of the Observatory Club, which has a lease on the Ewing Field premises.

Shade has two fights scheduled in advance of his proposed San Francisco bout and will be unable to leave the East before the morning of July 20.

The first of these fights will be with Morris Schaffer in Wilkes-Barre, Pa. on July 17, while the second is against Bobby Barrett at the Philadelphia National League Baseball Park on July 19.

Flynn said they would leave the following morning for San Francisco, which will give them approximately five days for training.

Reports have it Shade will receive a guaranteed $10,000 for this fight, with the privilege of taking 50 per cent of the gate receipts, and that Schoell is to get a $5,000 guarantee with the privilege of 50 per cent of the gate.

WALKER, SHADE MAY FIGHT (BY A. P. MONT WIRE) NEW YORK, July 8.—Mickey Walker of Elizabeth, N. J., world's welterweight champion, will meet Dave Shade of California, his most persistent challenger, in a five-round decision match in New York State if a reliable promoter can be obtained to stage the match, the State Athletic Commission announced today following a conference with the two principals.

Both Shade and Walker denied they had signed contracts for a title match in Vernon, Cal., July 21. Contracts for the proposed match were exhibited to the commission, but these contained only the signature of Jack Doyle, the Vernon promoter.

While only tentative terms were discussed, the principals agreed to every suggestion of the commission and left the conference promising to return next Tuesday to sign articles of agreement. The commission intimated it would turn these articles over to a reliable promoter.

SHADE IS SIGNED Jimmy DeForest, matchmaker of the Polo Grounds A.C., already has Shade's signature for a match, and it is expected that he will make a cablegram from Dempsey stating he would fight if he could get into condition on such short notice. Fitzsimmons intends to stage the bout in his own arena at Michigan City.

Boxing followers looked upon a match between Macken and Dempsey as the first of a series of preliminary fights which the champion has said would be necessary to prepare him for his battle with next summer with Harry Wills and Gene Tunney.

Madden's only chance to win the title would be by a knockout or on a foul.

HACKLEY MATCHED FOR VERNON FIGHT Jimmy Hackley, who knocked out Johnny Adams and won a decision from Bud Riley recently, was yesterday matched with Frankie Garcia by Wad Wadman as the semi-wind-up to the Phil Salvador-Pal Moran scrap at Vernon next Tuesday night. Salvador is training at the Lyceum Club, Moran at the Manhattan.

Salvador and Moran will make 135 pounds at 2 o'clock the day of the fight. Hackley and Garcia are making 120 pounds, an easy poundage for both. The rest of the card follows:

Harry Miller vs. Young Burns, 145 pounds, six rounds.

Bert Miller vs. Bud Orwell, 135 pounds, four rounds.

Jack Collins vs. Young Chico, 125 pounds, four rounds.

VON ELM WINS JACOBS'S CLUBS George Von Elm, Southern California amateur champ, took a fancy to a set of Jack Jacobs' wooden clubs at Wilshire last week when he was shooting for eagles and birdies on sixteen of the eighteen holes, made possible through a dozen drives of more than 300 yards, got home with a sizzling 67.

George returned the clubs to his own bag, Jacobs claims—and yesterday, playing with Wilshire Scots, club maker Harry Cline and Wilbur Evans, Von Elm medaled 71 and is keeping the clubs.

English Track Stars to Meet Yale-Harvard

CAMBRIDGE (Mass.) July 9.—The combined Oxford-Cambridge track teams are doing very little work on the cinders, but are spending most of their time at the beach reaping up after their trip across the Atlantic. They took a light workout today, but will lie idle all day tomorrow and until the meet Saturday afternoon.

Among the English stars is Lord Burghley, better known among those who met him on his recent trip here for the Penn relays as Dava. His Highness insists on being known as a regular fellow.

The Harvard and Yale teams are working out daily at the Harvard stadium, where the meet will be held. Both teams are in the best of condition, and in this particular have an edge on the invading foreigners, who cannot but have suffered a certain loss of vitality and stamina from the long ocean voyage.

RICH TO COACH ROMANS

Edward G. Rich, track and lightweight football mentor of last year, is Los Angeles High's new varsity football coach, according to a statement issued yesterday by the Board of Education.

Rich came to Los Angeles last fall from the University of Iowa. He was quarterback for two years on Howard Jones's teams and starred on the Hawkeyes track team. He succeeded Harry Kirkpatrick as track coach at the Wilshire institution, and handled the lightweight football team, also vacated by Kirkpatrick.

The Pioneer track team brought home numerous trophies and got fourth in the city meet and placed men in the Southern California and State meets. The lightweight football team lost but one game in its schedule.

Rich succeeds Bruce Kirkpatrick as football coach. He will remain in charge of L.A.'s cinderpath affairs. He comes with a high recommendation from Jones. Roy Goodenough, assistant track coach, leaves Los Angeles for Fairfax in the fall. Otherwise, there will be no change in the prep coaching staff.

PLAY CANADIAN GIRLS

Southern California's thousands of former Canadians are showing special interest in the girls' basketball game to be played Monday night in the Los Angeles Athletic Club gymnasium because the participating world's championship quintet is the Commercial Graceland Basketball Club of Edmonton, Alta.

This great team, which has held the Canadian, international and world honors several years, and will again represent Canada in the Women's Olympic Games at Brussels next year, will be battled Monday night by the girls' quintet of the Pasadena Athletic and Country Club, an exceedingly strong organization of basketball players.

This hoop contest will be strictly according to the rules for men's games and promises all sorts of thrills. The Dominion girls, averaging 125 pounds, are players of such class that they always are ready to meet representative boys' teams of the same weight, and have not once been defeated since 1922.

They hold the remarkable record of forty-two consecutive victories over the best female teams of Canada and the United States. Into this the husky Pasadena ladies hope to break. The contest will be open to the public.

Another game that should be close will take place tonight when Murray Rock leads his Hollywood American Legion Post against the Hollywood Postoffice nine at 5 p.m.

TOURNEY ATTRACTS STARS

The annual Santa Monica municipal tennis tournament will be held either August 15 or 16, according to an announcement made yesterday by George C. Fries, chairman of the Santa Monica municipal tennis committee.

Several local players plan to enter, including Paul Kerwin and Joe Call, who now have two legs on the men's doubles cup presented by the Santa Monica Sporting Goods Company.

Greater Mileage·Greater Power
Greater Speed..Combined!

With Richfield in your tank you know you have every good quality any gasoline can give. No need to search for better, or "dope" poorly made gasolines to make up for qualities they lack. Richfield means most from every motor. Always the same wherever you go—uniform, dependable and unflinching in its combined qualities of greater speed, power and mileage!

MILEAGE SPEED &amp; POWER

This is why Julius Dusevoir after testing many other gasolines selected Richfield for his officially observed Los Angeles-Yosemite High Gear run. 360 miles with only 9 3/4 gallons of powerful, mile-producing Richfield—an average of 36.91 miles per gallon! This is the same model stock Star touring car (sealed in high gear with top and windshield removed) that averaged less than 27 miles per gallon with another well-known brand of gasoline in the ninth Annual Los Angeles to Yosemite Economy Run on May 22nd and 23rd.

This is why Charles Holdson after exhaustive tests selected Richfield above all other gasolines for his remarkable Duesenberg endurance and economy run—6000 miles in 10 days!

Richfield is the exclusive choice of the world's greatest racing drivers. Men who know gasolines by actual road, speedway and laboratory tests and who, with the choice of every gasoline made, select Richfield and depend on it year after year.

Richfield has won every A. A. A. National Championship Race but one for four consecutive years! It was in the car of Jimmy Murphy, the only American driver to win the famous French Grand Prix, and has won the great Indianapolis 500 mile speedway Classic for five consecutive years—records unequalled by any other gasoline in the world!

Every Westerner has a right to be proud of this California gasoline—its wonderful records! Made by special process by a California company from California's crudes—owned and directed by California men—it is proving its wonderful mileage and power superiority by an unbroken string of speedway victories and by its steadily increasing sales of thousands of gallons every month! Try Richfield in your own car today—note the difference!

MEMBER OF THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
 The Associated Press is exclusively entitled
 to the use for redistribution of all news
 material published in this paper and also
 to the use of the name of the Times in connection with the same.

CITY HALL
 It causes so much vexatious delay that
 we really ought to call it our city halt.

THE HIGHER THE FEWER
 Now that Will Hays is on the spot the making of cleaner and better pictures may be undertaken with renewed zeal.

OVERFLOWING BOWL
 Some of the ideas eastern people get
 about Hollywood from eastern publications
 are founded in fact. All Hollywood loves
 the overflowing bowl, but it's another which
 cheers, but not inebriates.

NO HEARTLESS—THOUGHTLESS
 It gives us all a shock to hear of some
 one committing suicide with a butcher
 knife. Yet every day we see people doing
 the same thing with ordinary table knives
 and forks and fairly cheer them on.

THE YOUNG IDEA
 Soviet Russia has ordered military
 training and three months of camp life
 every year for high-school students in the socialist dominion. Teaching the young idea how to shoot is one thing. Training it to throw bombs is another.

AL IS VANITY
 At the monkey cage in the zoo a good deal of amusement is aroused by the boast-
 ful pretensions of some high-browed humans that they have a strain of gorilla in their veins. The ape, on the other hand,
 is chattering about the follies of the humans,
 but they are not writing any pieces for the paper about them.

LOTS OF LUMBER
 On a recent day at the harbor no less
 than twenty-two massive lumber carriers
 were discharging cargoes from their holds and decks at the same time. There was a total of nearly 40,000,000 feet—board measure—which in the making of forty lumber yards. More lumber is unloaded here than at any port in the world and we are trying
 to use most of it ourselves in the matter
 of home-building.

NAP ON THE BENCH
 A high court holds that it is not error
 when a judge takes a little snooze during the progress of a trial. A case was appealed on the ground that the judge was asleep during a part of the hearing, but
 the upper court decides that, even when
 justice sleeps, her soul goes marching on.
 What is a bench for, anyhow? There are lots of folks who never use them save when
 moved to slumber.

BANKING HISTORY
 The bank deposits in Los Angeles are at the billion-dollar mark. As a rule this means real money. Our citizens have the regular mags. They are wealthy with cash. It goes in and out of the bank in circles, but it is standard money of Uncle Sam's brew. The banking history of the community does not go back very far, but
 it is now open at a mighty rich chapter.
 The per capita deposits in Los Angeles banks
 are among the heaviest in the country.

THE PARADES
 The Ku Klux Klan wishes to hold a huge parade in Washington to demonstrate
 to the politicians the strength of their fraternity. The country is being overpowered, anyhow. Whenever a couple of men acquire a badge or plume they form a proceed and hire a band. A Klan demonstration in Washington would be a serious
 error of judgment for the very reason that it is admitted that the organization wishes
 to control the government along the lines
 of its own narrow creed.

CASH YOUR CHECKS
 Don't hold your checks. Either deposit them or have them cashed as soon as possible. This is the particular urge of the American Bankers' Association. To hold a check not only makes possible the loss of the money it represents, but it gums up the books. It is hard to close or transfer accounts when checks are long outstanding.
 Most folks do not have to be told of the importance of realizing on a check promptly.
 They are on their way as soon as they get it. But sometimes they delay and this invites loss and trouble.

VOICE OF THE SENATE
 Former Senator Beveridge insists that if the Senate rules are amended to limit
 debate the result will be a flood of undig-ested and ill-advised legislation. He figures
 that it is better to have a slow, undigested
 words than of laws. This, however, is merely the opinion of the Indiana Statesman. The Senate rules neither make nor unmake its laws. It is hardly fair to assume that if debate is shut off the Senate
 would pass all kinds of fool measures.
 Senators are supposed to know how to
 vote as well as talk and it is a famous fact that a Senate vote is seldom influenced by a Senate argument. Limiting debate is merely with the idea of more and better business. It is in tune with the programs of modern efficiency. We want time-
 savers rather than time-killers.

ISOLATED RUSSIA
 Chickens of the Russian soviet government are coming home in flocks to roost
 at the portals of the Kremlin. For six years Bolshevik emissaries have been busily engaged fomenting revolts against existing governments wherever even a faint
 prospect of success appeared. Meanwhile Tchicherin and others of the Bolshevik
 leaders have been striving to secure recognition from these same governments and
 to negotiate commercial treaties favorable
 to Russia.

These two plans of action do not run in parallel lines. The guarantee given in the political and commercial treaties must be violated, else the work of the propagandists
 fomenting the world revolt of the proletariat must go for naught.

Every government that has had any negotiations whatever with the soviet has suffered from the Bolshevik propaganda.
 It has occasioned unrest among the unedu-
 cated masses—for Bolshevism attaches itself only to ignorance, and for a person
 capable of reasonable judgment to profess
 sovietism is a certain mark of venality.
 England, France, Germany and Italy have
 vied after coming in contact with Moscow.

The present troubles in Morocco and China are in a great measure the result of Bolshevik propaganda. Christians praying
 upon the ignorant can do a vast amount of harm.

When the soviet was seeking political recognition they placed great stress on the
 beneficial results of a renewal of trade relations with Russia. The British workmen
 sincerely believed that the commercial treaty with Moscow would open new
 markets and thereby reduce unemployment.
 But the number of unemployed in England
 and Scotland has about doubled since the treaty was negotiated.

England, France and Germany are learning the truth of the affirmation of former Secretary Hughes that "Russia under the soviet is an economic vacuum." The election of Von Hindenburg and an anti-Socialistic Reichstag sounded the death-knell of Bolshevik revolt in Germany; and the official soviet press now contains articles bi-terly assailing the German government as
 "the most dangerous and desperate enemy
 of the soviet."

Moscow has made approaches to Japan
 and France; but, after investigation, they have been repulsed, just as they were by the Turks. One cannot come into personal contact with pitch without getting tar on
 one's clothes or hands, and the same is true
 of Communism.

Recent cables assert that England, France
 and Japan are considering a joint action
 by which they will cancel both political and commercial treaties with the soviet. The trade of none of these countries has benefited from these treaties, and there is no
 immediate prospect of better conditions.

Contrary to the opinion of many, Western Europe has demonstrated that it can get along without Russia, that there are products in the rest of the world to replace
 what once came from the Russian market
 and that an isolated Russia will not seriously damage any of the neighboring peoples. Russia proved not to be indispensable, and the isolation of Russia that started
 from within is steadily progressing from without.

In this connection it is illuminating to reflect that no single people or part of the world is indispensable to the rest. We may think that civilization would collapse without America; but it is well to recall that
 a high civilization and culture existed in Europe before the Europeans knew that the Americas existed. And it is probable that if America disappeared, like the fabulous lost Atlantis, the rest of the world
 would still be able to exist.

Russia, on the other hand, finds it increasingly difficult to get along without the rest of the world. The isolation is making itself felt in the hearts of the people. They feel the disgrace and humiliation of being considered as pariahs; and public opinion
 in Russia is becoming more imperative in its demand that Russia shall again be taken
 into the family of nations.

The Russian people can be accepted by
 other peoples only when they show themselves worthy of confidence and respect.
 Their theory of government and industry
 has been tried and found wanting, and they have been guilty of nameless crimes against humanity. They must repent and make
 what restitution is possible before the rest of the world can forgive and forget. In this their position is similar to that of Germany at the close of the World War. There can be no unity without reparations, both
 moral and material.

THOMAS LEE WOOLWINE

Stricken down after a courageous fight
 against ever-increasing odds, Thomas Lee Woolwine has accepted defeat at the hands of the destroyer. For two years he kept
 up the stern struggle with the invincible
 arch-enemy. Nor did he yield himself utterly to death. Even in the last of all mortal conflicts his love of country triumphed.
 With broken wings the stormy petrel came back to die in his own home nest at last.

No more picturesque or dramatic personality has ever played a strong part in the political affairs of Southern California.
 From his native State of Tennessee Thomas Lee Woolwine inherited many of the best characteristics of the fine old fighting South. To these he grafted the vigor and vision of the free West and for nearly thirty years held the limelight among the leading spirits of Los Angeles.

Whatever he undertook, into whatever
 conflict fate or his own actions thrust him,
 the man who was for eight years District
 Attorney of Los Angeles county was essentially the warrior, giving and taking blows
 without asking or accepting quarter. The dashing and debonair figure that, fresh from the sunny South, first appeared on the stage of a turbulently growing community,
 was, when destiny wrote fate to his part in
 the drama, prematurely battered and broken.
 The fiery spirit burned out the case
 that housed it, which in less intense natures
 might still have been in good repair. Yet
 that spirit accomplished many feats that
 will go down in the history of the Southwest after the deeds of stranger bodies and
 weaker spirits have been forgotten.

As a sturdy American patriot who fought
 the foes of law and order wherever they came in conflict with the majesty of the State, Thomas Lee Woolwine did valiant
 work through a dangerous and difficult
 period in helping to make Southern California safe for the peaceful and industrious
 millions building on these shores a strong and religious commonwealth. To a large extent the unpleasant part of this great

task fell to his lot, possibly because his passionate temperament fitted him for the trenches rather than for the phone behind
 the lines.

He was an uncompromising upholder of
 law. The grafters knew him. The I.W.W. feared him. The anarchists hated him. The underworld plotted against him. The criminal detested him. When the arch-dynamite of the century was seeking release Wool-
 wine used all his strength and eloquence in protest against such a travesty of justice.

He was relentless in securing the conviction of "Big Hutch," one of the most infamous bank robbers of modern times. When called on by his office to prosecute murderers or murderers he never allowed popular
 prejudice or sub-sisters' appeals to turn
 him from the straight path of duty.

Woolwine was certainly the most spectacular leader of the diminishing Democratic adherents in Southern California. Twice
 he ran for Governor of the State, but he was twenty-five years too late in entering
 such a contest. The days when a Democratic Governor was possible in California
 had passed away. Yet his Democracy was
 of the old sturdy brand that gave the country Andrew Jackson and, at the apex, Grover Cleveland, before that party had been
 sickled over with the sentimentality and
 semi-Socialism of its later leaders.

Both California and Tennessee have good
 reason today to lament the loss to the nation of this true American warrior. The Times wishes to add its leaf to the laurel wreath in honor of the man who, through
 good report or ill report, always stood four square for the enforcement of law and the
 constitutional rights of all American citizens.

THE BIG GUNS
 "Evolution is truth, and truth must prevail. All my work daily demonstrates evolution." Luther Burbank, the California
 naturalist, is reported to have said.

"There is no conflict between science and religion. I find science but an explanation of religion." These are said to be the words of the famous surgeon, Dr. W. J.
 Mayo.

"Evolution is one of the most dangerous
 theories ever pronounced" are the reported words of Wilbur Glenn Voliva, the overseer of Zion City, founded by Alexander Dowle. Voliva recently announced himself
 in favor of the earth-flat theory.

"Evolution disputes the Bible record of
 man's creation, and the logic of the evolutionist eliminates as false the miracles of
 the Bible" is declared to be the pronoun-
 cement of William Jennings Bryan.
 A churchman recently called attention to
 the quite remarkable agreement between
 the order of development of animals as recorded on the rocks in geology and the order of creation as assigned in Genesis.

Secretary Wilbur, in a recent address
 said, "There are at least two divine books—
 the Holy Bible, on whose pages are inscribed the doings and sayings of holy men,
 and the book of nature. Common sense suggests that these two records be considered
 together and that to reject and utterly ignore either is equally foolish."

The Literary Digest of July 4 makes the following statement: "Father John J.
 Wynne, editor of the Catholic Encyclopedia,
 who upholds the principle of teaching evolution as a scientific theory of human origin and disproves of attempts to legislate
 against teaching it, is quoted in the New York Times as saying, 'Evolution should be taught as a scientific hypothesis with the facts which tend to support it and the facts
 which tend to discredit it impartially displayed. It should neither be preached as a dogma nor attacked as a heresy. Nor are
 we in favor of having evolution tried
 in the courts. It is a matter for scientists rather than jurists, and scientists are very few in number and slow to speak.'"

IT'S "O," NOT "A"
 Maybe the trouble is largely due to careless reading. A great many people seem to think that what is demanded is prohibition enforcement.

LETTERS TO The Times

The Law of Intervals
 HOLLYWOOD, July 6.—[To the Editor of The Times:] In connection with the recent Santa Barbara
 earthquake it is interesting to note
 the lengthening periods of time between destructive shocks in that locality. It is stated in Holden's
 "Catalogue of Earthquakes on the Pacific Coast" that four shocks occurred in the south on July 28, 1769. We may reasonably suppose that this quake was quite pronounced at Santa Barbara. If this is granted, we find the next destructive tremor at Santa Barbara in 1812, forty-three years later. Again,
 on January 9, 1857, a destructive earthquake visited that
 section, forty-five years from the preceding one. And now, a period of sixty-eight years has passed to
 the shake so recently recorded.
 May we not, then, reasonably suppose that it will be at least seventy
 or seventy-five years before Santa Barbara residents need worry
 about a repetition of the recent disaster. And by that time the science of building will be so far
 advanced that they won't need to worry at all.

Why Not Cadman's?
 LOS ANGELES, July 7.—[To the Editor of The Times:] If Mr.
 Henry wants a song for this city
 why doesn't he go to the City Club
 every Friday noon and listen to 400 voices sing Cadman's song—
 "Los Angeles, the Beautiful." It is pronounced great, yet he seems
 to know nothing about it.

Haskell Approved
 LOS ANGELES, July 7.—[To the Editor of The Times:] Those of us who are interested in the monkey rumpus now going on, away
 down South in Tennessee, should
 not fail to read a very interesting letter by Mr. J. Wesley Haskell of the Southwest Museum and published in The Times of July 4. I think Mr. Haskell deals with the question of evolution and the communal mind in nature. I prize the article very highly, so much so that I have made a clipping of it for future reference. While reading it
 I was reminded of that famous hymn of Cowper: "God Moves in a Mysterious Way." Cowper in these lines seems to come as near
 solving the riddle of the universe
 as either Mr. Darwin or Mr. Bryan.
ROBERT MCCURT.

PEN POINTS
 The honeymoon would be wan-
 ing a little by now, even if a kiss
 didn't skid.
 The violent exercise most hurt-
 ful in hot weather is done with a knife and fork.
 There's one thing about decency.
 It never feels the need of the cler-
 gy's indorsement.
 You can't avoid some exercise
 at a resort. The mosquito bites
 must be scratched.
 Good times are those in which
 people who have money contrive
 to get a little more.
 Once the victim tried to remember the number of the car that hit
 him; now he tries to remember the number of cars.
 There is a brighter side. Life
 never again seems such a bore
 after you pass it.
 Another dismal failure is the effort of the new rich to look blas-
 e in a new limousine.
 It is all right to exaggerate. Listeners are in the habit of making
 the necessary discount.
 "One person in ten is feeble-minded." There seems to be a great future for the confession
 magazines.
 If he is wholly selfish in little
 things the thing that keeps him
 from being a pirate is expediency.
 Compassion is what you feel
 when you observe a boy with a cute pug nose trying to seem tough.

GOLDEN FRUITS
 The orange has a long and interesting
 history, but it did not make its appearance
 in Europe until Spanish and Italian adventurers brought it to their people. It had its origin in India, but the Arabs did not get it to the tenth century. The early Greeks and Romans never had a whiff of the fragrant blossoms. The first orange that London ever saw came to Queen Eleanor during her last days.
 The wife of Edward I was herself from Castile
 and a ship which brought her some delicacies from Spain in the year 1290 included
 a dozen oranges in her cargo. Now the English get a large part of their orange
 supply from Los Angeles county, which did not exist in the days of the first Edward.
 The orange has become possibly the best
 beloved fruit of the wide, wide world.

OLD-FASHIONED FLOWERS
 Today there are no sweeter blossoms
 blowing.
 Than these bright blooms our
 mothers loved so well.
 The red geranium, with its silken
 petals.
 The wild pink rose, the Canterbury bell.
 Petunias, pansies, and the scented
 lilac.
 The hollyhocks that top the
 sturdy grass.
 But best of all I love the morning
 glories
 That wreath the gate where
 Mary soon will pass.

These gaudy xinnias and the quaint
 Sweet Williams.
 The marigolds so filled with
 glowing life.
 The striped begonias and the ole-
 anders.
 The sunflower corps with fluted
 drum and fife.
 Gardenias and the brown-eyed saucy
 Susans.
 Each dancing bluebell like some
 merry lass.
 But best of all I love the morning
 glories
 That wreath the gate where
 Mary soon will pass.

The Good Old Days
 Newspapers often speak of the good old days. But were they any better than they are today? In the so-called good old days
 the world never enjoyed the exercise of
 dodging automobiles; there was no static
 to exercise one's vocal chords; a bootlegger
 was just a plain bum instead of a flaneur,
 and if a man ever dreamed of an airplane
 he took a big dose of castor oil the next day
 for a bilious attack. There is a mistake.
 These are the good old days.—(Florida Times-Union.)

ANSWERS TO MOTHERS

God could not be everywhere; therefore he made mothers. Jewish proverb.

CANNED VEGETABLES AND VITAMINS

Dear Doctor: I want to ask if it will be all right to give my little girl canned vegetable soup instead of fresh? I live in a small oil field town and it is very hard to get fresh vegetables. Mrs. H.

Yes, the canned vegetables and soups which are put up by reliable firms should be used if you cannot get fresh vegetables. A share of the vitamins are undoubtedly lost, but the mineral elements which are just as important, are still intact. Spinach and tomatoes lose very much less of their vitamins than other vegetables when canned or dried.

But Mrs. H., you can always get potatoes, turnips, cabbage, carrots and lemons. You can get yeast extracts which are high in the antineuritic vitamins. They have a delicious mushroom-like flavoring and make good soups and sauces. You should also have some cod liver oil. The pure cod liver oil is now put up in such a form that a lot of the disagreeable taste has been lost.

Your little girl should have one or two teaspoons a day. It is a food, and not a medicine, and is very high in the growth vitamins.

Another thing you can do which will give you some fresh vegetables with their vitamins is to sprout some grains or legumes (peas, beans or lentils). These sprouted grains and legumes are fairly high in the antineuritic vitamins.

This is the method advised in McCarrison's Studies in Deficiency Diseases.

Beans, peas, grains, etc. are put in water and left to soak for twenty-four hours in room temperature. They are placed in layers one to two inches in depth upon an ordinary kitchen sieve or some other porous surface. They are kept moist by occasional sprinkling with water. At the end of this period, rootlets varying around one-quarter of an inch should be seen.

The germinated heads should not be allowed to become dried, but should be cooked immediately for as short a time as possible. Pick a lot of the sprouts and eat raw as a salad.

I have read that it was through the use of sprouted grains that the armies of Serbia were saved from scurvy, during the war. The sprouted soy bean is one of the constituents of the Chinese dish, chop suey.

All of you should be out in the open as much as possible. See the answer below for your other question.

PREGNANCY AND WEANING

Mrs. H. Yes it is possible to become pregnant while nursing the baby, before the menstruation period returns. In the medical history, there is a case of a woman who had eleven children and never menstruated from the time she was first pregnant. Hope this is not your case!

In case pregnancy occurs while nursing, you must wean your baby. That is one of the very few reasons for weaning before the baby is nine months old. Nature doesn't seem to want the mother to nurse two babies at the same time. It is wisest for the mother's sake, too.

Mrs. F. I suggest that you send for your articles on Rickets and Bed Wetting. You need only a self-addressed, stamped envelope with your request.

THE LAST WORD

By ALMA WHITTAKER

KEEPING HER HOME TOGETHER

She is a pale, thin woman, with kind, anxious eyes and strong, hard-working hands. And she has given those hands the job of "keeping her home together."

That precious little modest home is forty miles from the city, where rents are cheap and one can enjoy a sunny garden. Her husband is a semi-invalid, but he can work a little and manages to eke out about $40 a month.

And there are two girls and a boy, 14, 14 and 13, respectively. They can't possibly live on dear dad's earnings, and mother is most anxious that the children shall graduate from high school.

But the only thing mother knows is housekeeping and loving children and making a home. Very well, then, she can do that for some other family. So up there in the city she has discovered the home of a "couple employed, where there are two dear little boys, and where her good offices are urgently needed."

So all the week, while that mother and father are out working, mother loves the two little boys, keeps the house clean and comfy, thinks up and cooks good appetizing meals—while her own little family have to manage as best they can without her.

But she can go home early on Saturday afternoon, do the washing for her own little family, cook them a special dinner, and maybe, even take them to a show at night.

She can do the ironing on Sunday morning, hear all about her own children's little hopes and sorrows, straighten out any little tangled, doctored mending, and if she catches the 8:30 a.m. car in Monday, she can get back to her city noble heart beat home in time to feed and put up their lunches and get them safely off to school.

UNITED TRAVELOGUE
FIRST NATIONAL BUSY HIVE OF FILM WORK

By Grace Kingsley
If you could travel around United Studios as I did yesterday, you would know that hot weather doesn't mean a thing in so far as news of First National is concerned. Everybody was as full of pep as a Spanish tamale.

Lloyd Hughes and his nice actress-wife, Gloria Hope, had just breezed in from New York. Hughes is to go back to the First National east-coast fold and make another film, and Gloria expects to resume her work in pictures also, although nothing definite has been settled as to what she will do.

Dorothy Mackall is expected to have to leave for the East on the Fourth of July, but managed to remain here for a few days longer to visit her mother. She expects to return east soon, however.

Cover in Colleen Moore's bungalow they were "polishing up the handle to the big front door" in anticipation of Miss Moore's return. She and her husband, John McCormick, having had several months' trip in Europe, are on their way home. They will arrive on Monday afternoon.

Al Rockett, assistant general manager of First National, who has been sitting in for McCormick, the latter being, as you know, west-coast representative of that organization, will return to Gotham after he and McCormick exchange current business matters pertaining to the company. Rockett has made a host of new friends during the few months he has been at McCormick's desk, and they are all sorry to learn that he is to return to his desk in New York.

First National's schedule of productions for the remainder of the summer is a most important one. With five units working at top speed, and with many stories purchased and ready for the screen, others ready for the scenario department, it looks as if there will be no chance for grass to grow around the lot.

And speaking of scenarios, June Mathis, head of the department in Hollywood, has been confined to her home for several days, due to overwork.

Dorothy Sebastian, that southern beauty, started all of the people by appearing with leather breeches. She had plucked her own and named patent-leather strips in their place.

"They look good in the camera," laughed Dorothy. "I shine them with a shoe brush."

A note from Milton Sills indicates the First National star will soon be at home. He has been spending a good deal of time in the Canadian woods near Montreal, working on a picture. Sills has one of the finest homes in Hollywood, and he is now in the best of health. He is now in the best of health. He is now in the best of health.

"LAST FRONTIER" TO MEMORIALIZE INCE
If Hunt Stromberg has his way "The Last Frontier" will serve as a memorial to that pioneer western producer, Thomas H. Ince. It is to be one of the most remarkable western pictures ever made, according to present plans.

Stromberg, after weeks of hard work, has turned the details of his organization to his associates and from today on will concentrate on the completion of this epic of the West that Mr. Ince left unfinished at the time of his death.

Selection of the cast, which Stromberg intends to be one of the most notable ever assembled for a western type of picture, will begin within the next few days. With Indians, soldiers, railroad builders, wagon trains, battle across the great plains, some 15,000 persons will be used. Col. Timothy McCoy, Indian historian, is rounding up 4,000 Indians for the fighting scenes. Stromberg has sent him a telegram to increase the number to 5,000 if possible.

Stromberg has been in touch with the War Department, which will lend its assistance in providing the details and whatever other help it can in relation to the scenes showing the massacre of Gen. Custer and his famous 7th Cavalry band of troops and concerning Buffalo Bill, Wild Bill Hickok, Roman Nose and other famous characters whose deeds are recorded in the archives at Washington.

Lillian Tashman is it.

Just because Lillian Tashman has been playing two roles at a pop of late, don't run away with the idea that she is turning down any job. Miss Tashman, former Ziegfeld showgirl, who played a leading role in Monta Bell's Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer production, "Pretty Ladies," has been cast in an important role in another picture of Broadway.

She will play one of the big roles in Robert Z. Leonard's next Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer production, "A Little Bit of Broadway," in which Pauline Starke will play the leading part.

Miss Tashman's film experience began in the Goldwyn picture, "Nellie, the Beautiful Cloak Model." "A Little Bit of Broadway" was adapted for the screen by Jessig Burns from the story of the same name by Richard Connell.

"Roylee Girl" After All

A. H. Woods used to hold the palm for changing his mind, and he will probably be mightily pained when he finds that it has been passed on to D. W. Griffith. Nevertheless, the fact remains that the director may be said to have won it by deciding after all to make "The Roylee Girl." Carol

America Rich in Material for Composers
That the great American writer, Edgar Allan Poe, has provided fruitful material for American composers, is the declaration of Edgar Sullivan Kelley, winner of the National Federation of Music Clubs prize for symphonic poems, who will conduct his successful composition, "The Pit and the Pendulum," at the Bowl Saturday night.

Mr. Kelley, who has endeavored a few days ago from the Federation meeting at Portland, Ore., where the work had its second hearing, the first having been held at the Cincinnati May Festival last month. He is on his way home to Bedford, O., where he enjoys a fellowship for composing at the Women's College just outside Cincinnati.

"My life, at the time of writing 'The Pit and the Pendulum,' was a desperate struggle against circumstances which tormented me just as Poe's victim was tormented," said Mr. Kelley. In an interview at the Hollywood Hotel, soon after his arrival, he has endeavored to picture the fearful ideas which drove Poe's prisoner into insupportable terror.

The theme of Poe's story, the theme of the pendulum, was a theme of the imagination, sweet, rest, the gigantic pendulum figure ways toward the listener in wider and wider sweeps, but the rest motif is never wholly lost. As the iron walls of the prison seem to close in on him there is a long scream of despair and as he totters on the brink, the French army, musically expressed in the Marchellian, gives him his freedom.

While the music is not extreme in the harmonic sense, Mr. Kelley declared, it is modern in the sense of having been written for today and also for tomorrow. It stands the test of time. He thinks that by deciding after all to make "The Roylee Girl," Carol

Raoul Walsh is to Direct for Famous Players
Following a preview of "The Wanderer" by Paramount officials, Raoul Walsh, who directed that photoplay, today was signed to a long-term contract by Jesse Lasky, the first vice-president in charge of production of Famous Players-Lasky Corporation.

"We have been following the work of Mr. Walsh for a long time," declared Mr. Lasky. "In the past few years he has made a number of remarkable productions, including Douglas Fairbanks' 'The Thief of Bagdad.' With 'The Wanderer' he has made a picture that stands out as one of the small handful of masterpieces in screen history. I doubt if there is another director in motion pictures who could have handled the story of 'The Prejudicial Son' as did Mr. Walsh."

Already, according to Mr. Lasky, elaborate plans are being laid for a series of future pictures to be directed by Walsh. His first production under the new contract will be an original story by Robert E. Sherwood and Bertram Block.

"Playhouse" to be Dark Only Sunday Night
There will be no performance at the Playhouse on Sunday night, but this does not mean that this theater is to remain dark.

The following night Sidney Blackmer and Vivian Martin will resume their engagement in that delightful comedy, "Quarantine," for the last week.

On Monday night, July 26, Tom Wilson and Charles H. Wagner will present the versatile Blackmer in his greatest New York success, "The Mountain Man," a romantic comedy of the Blue Ridge section of Virginia, from the skilled pen of Clare Kummer.

The story is that of a young mountaineer who leaves his native environment for the domain of culture and is packed to the brim with Miss Kummer's whimsical humor and sentiment. The characters are so sharply defined and deftly etched that they stand out as real human beings.

"Show-Off" Still Entertains at The Biltmore
"The Show-Off" will be seen at the Biltmore Theater for the balance of the week, and laughter lovers have but few opportunities to see this highly amusing comedy of American home life. Stewart and French have sent a fine company to the West Coast for George Kelley's comedy, and in the metropolitan organization will be found such well-known players as Jessie Hales, Hobart Cavanaugh, Maude Franklin, Beatrice Miller, Jack Gilchrist, Neil McFee, O. W. Bloomer and Charles Sugar-Turner.

"The Show-Off" induces untold quantities of laughter, yet it has its serious side and compels thought by following a comedy of the qualities pertaining to the home life of the average American family. "The Show-Off" reached the fine result of 400 consecutive performances in New York, and seems to be one of those everlasting comedies. The picture quality of the play have been highly commended, for the stage settings are exact and appropriate in every detail.

John Roche is vacationing briefly following a coarcted performance in "The Love Hour" at Warner Brothers studio. His mother, Mrs. Roche, is in the East at present. The actor has been spending much of his spare time at the ocean side.

"PETROUCHKA" CHEERED
Ovation for Stravinsky Presentation at Bowl

By Edwin Schallert
Modern music has triumphed anew at the Hollywood Bowl concert. From the reception accorded Igor Stravinsky's orchestral suite from the ballet, "Petrochka," played here for the first time last night, it is evident that the spirit of progress will kindle more brilliantly than ever in the amphitheater of the hills that has already been the setting for so much of beauty and novelty to delight the listener.

The second concert was a notable success from the standpoint of artistic interest, and strengthened in many ways the impression made by the orchestra under its new conductor, Fritz Reiner. Particularly in a greater vigor and freedom of the interpretations did it appear on advance. At times, perhaps, there was less of that same fine shading which was to be noted during the opening program, but the character of the compositions, with the exception of the new work, "Eroica," symphony demanded more sweep. And, in this Beethoven work, Mr. Reiner gave proof of a dignity and refinement that contrasted rather strikingly with the broader lines of the majority of the other presentations.

The applause for the "Petrochka" suite was by far the most enthusiastic thus far this season for any single rendition. It culminated in a small barrage of bravos from various sections of the audience, quite amply proving, no doubt, the appeal that was made by including a new work so early in the series of programs. There is no question either that the composition as a composition, was approved by the great majority for its novelty. This novelty is by no means extreme, and rhythmically very fascinating.

I do not know that I care for the "Petrochka" quite so much personally after a first hearing, as the dazzling "Fire-bird" suite, which has been played at the bowl concerts. It does not seem to possess quite the same animated inspiration, nor such decidedly brilliant color in total effects.

It is none the less a very vivid and energetic work, taken as a whole, with touches of the grotesque and even of the satirical that live up to the spirit of the work. There is one episode, in particular, about the middle of the composition that brings out very strongly to my way of thinking the note of satire. There is a certain very energetic, almost a "bomby" quality, which gives to the performance, by the puppet orchestra, a certain quality of the grotesque and even of the satirical that live up to the spirit of the work. There is one episode, in particular, about the middle of the composition that brings out very strongly to my way of thinking the note of satire.

The actual rendition was preceded by a very comprehensive and interesting explanatory talk by Olin Downes, the New York music critic, and this served very materially to heighten the meaning of the rendition.

The symphonic poem, "Finlandia," which is splendid for operatic presentation, was quite definitely an outstanding popular attraction on the program. Mr. Reiner seemed to emphasize very splendidly its somewhat epic character. There was a certain fine native feeling in this work, that despite it is played far too often, comes out anew with an interpretation of character.

Beethoven's "Eroica" Symphony is always to be distinguished as a noble height in the realm of classical music, and tests a conductor's ability far more in many respects than the moderns, because of its background of tradition. To this symphony Mr. Reiner brought both discrimination and feeling.

Hearing the work under his baton rendered a most pleasant and turbulent musical manifestation in the earlier part of the program. There were definite touches of nobility in this rendition which were noteworthy. I would not be prepared to say whether he attained the full nobility of the Beethoven inspiration, because I had to leave before the close of the symphony.

Beethoven's Overture, "The Roman Carnival," opened the program effectively.

Harry Carroll New Headliner for Orpheum
Harry Carroll, one of the foremost producers and entertainers of the day, will headline on the Orpheum bill opening Monday, when he will present an entirely new edition of his triumphs of last season. "Everything Will Be All Right." Besides himself and Vera Marsh, all the players of this big revue will be new, the list including Edna Kane, Marjorie and Virginia O'Brien, Cy Seymour trio, Madeleine Wells, Dottie Wilson and Dave Payer. Numbers created during this spring will be among its prominent features, and scenery, costumes and effects will all be new. The production will be brought out here for the first time.

Bert and Betty Wheeler, two prime fun makers, favorites here in both vaudeville and musical comedy, are featured in the new bill, and they will offer "Bits of Everything," which they will mould into a series of episodes of the best fun-making sort. Bloomer and Benny Fields, in their second week, will offer new material and Bloomer will wear some stunning new frocks. Also Frank Fay—making four star acts—will remain with his new funny assistants.

Ford and Glenn, radio artists from Chicago, will present themselves before a real public, in songs; the Six Hasans will return with their sensational acrobatic dances, while the McDonald Trio, with comedy cycling, will be the final feature of this well-rounded summer time show.

FOE OF EVOLUTION HERE

Rev. T. T. Shields to Deliver Series of Lectures Here Against Darwinistic Doctrines

Rev. T. T. Shields, D.D., self-avowed fighting fundamentalist, arrived in Los Angeles yesterday from Toronto, Canada, to deliver a series of lectures against the theory of evolution during the next two weeks in various Southern California churches.

In the northern Baptist convention, which closed last Sunday at Seattle, Dr. Shields, who is pastor of the Jarvis-street Baptist Church of Toronto, and president of the Baptist Bible Union of North America, led the fundamentalist group in a fight against the liberal modernists.

The modernists won the battle through control of the chair, which refused to recognize any fundamentalist's motion, according to Dr. Shields.

VICTORY GAINED

However, a victory was gained by the adherents of the old orthodox faith at a two-day session of the Bible Union following the convention, he declared, adding that by an overwhelming vote the union demanded the denomination make no reconciliation with the teaching of evolution and declare war on all modernists who seek to control churches through large gifts.

"Whatever the verdict of the evolution trial in Dayton is, fundamental faith will be engrained deeper in the hearts of the American people," he said yesterday. "I expect William Jennings Bryan and his associates to win, however."

The theory of evolution is not a science, according to Dr. Shields. "It deals with origin and destinies of humans and therefore is a religious philosophy," he said. "For that reason the State of Tennessee has no right to use any of the public funds for its promulgation to undermine present religious teachings."

SUNDAY ADDRESS

Sunday evening, at the Church of the Open Door, Dr. Shields will deliver an address on "Whether or Not the Baptist Denomination Shall Become the Religious Department of the Standard Oil Company." This is the address which precipitated the fundamentalism-modernism fight in the convention.

In this address, Dr. Shields demands that the Park-avenue Baptist Church of New York be eliminated from the denomination because it engaged Dr. Harry Emerson Fosdick, extreme liberalist, as pastor, his service to start next year. John D. Rockefeller, Jr., is a member of the church.

SLAYERS' ARREST EXPECTED

Police Run Down Clues to Identity of Bandit Pair Who Murdered Miss Kolling

Clues pointing to the bandit pair known as the long-and-short robbers, who have been preying on couples in parked automobiles, as the murderers of Miss Edna Kolling, 28 years of age, shot to death when her companion, Theodore Stanford, resisted a hold-up early yesterday, were being run down by deputy sheriffs under Capt. William Bright. Capture of one or both of the Lovers' Lane gunmen is declared not to be improbable with the discovery of new information.

Stanford told the story of the hold-up and murder at the Receiving Hospital, where he was treated for a bullet wound in his hand, inflicted by one of the robbers. The tall bandit fired the shot that killed Miss Kolling, Stanford said, while the smaller man kept both covered.

Stanford and Miss Kolling were seated in a touring car on Western avenue, near Rogers Airport, when two men appeared on foot. Instead of obeying the bandits' orders to throw up his hands, Stanford reached for a screw driver, hoping to bluff the gunmen. As he did the fatal shot was fired, killing Miss Kolling and wounding him.

The taller bandit, who fired the shot, laughed and removed some change from the dead girl's purse and both gunmen vanished.

A passerby found Stanford weeping over the dead girl's body. Stanford and the body of this girl were placed in another car and were taken to the Receiving Hospital.

Inquest into Miss Kolling's death will be conducted today at 1:30 p.m. at the mortuary of W. A. Brown. Stanford lives at 331 Emily avenue, Watts, and Miss Kolling lived at 4314 Mosher avenue.

OBENCHAIN LOVER FREE FROM JAIL

Witness in Kennedy Case Destroys Manuscript of "True Facts" in Killing

Paul Roman, witness in the trial of Madalynne Obenchain for the murder of J. Belton Kennedy several years ago, who was arrested Wednesday as a result of alleged threats he made against Mrs. Obenchain, was released from the County Jail yesterday. His release was ordered after a conference of deputy sheriffs with Attorney William Belne, counsel for Mrs. Obenchain.

At the conference, held prior to his release, Roman voluntarily destroyed a manuscript entitled "The Love Judas," written while he was a prisoner at Folsom, in which he related the "true facts withheld from the twelve men and women, good and true," at the trial several years ago. Roman also gave his word to the officers that he would not attempt to see Mrs. Obenchain, and said he intends to leave the city within a few days.

Roman recently was given his final release from Folsom, where he served a term of four years for burglary. During Mrs. Obenchain's trial and while he was a prisoner in the County Jail she is alleged to have written him passionate love letters. It was to explain his conduct of turning State's evidence at the trial, Roman said, that he looked up Mrs. Obenchain at her Barker-Karpis home.

The manuscript which Roman destroyed, it is said, was to have been offered to two Los Angeles experts as the real truth of the Obenchain trial. Roman admitted having this manuscript with him Wednesday when he attempted to call on Mrs. Obenchain, but denied that he was going to attempt to sell it to the highest bidder.

CHILD DIES IN RIP TIDE AT VENICE

Doctors Unable to Revive Dorothy Baldwin, Taken from Sea Unconscious

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent

VENICE, July 9.—Carried beyond her depth in a heavy rip tide while swimming with her younger sister, south of the Center-street pier, shortly before noon today, Dorothy Baldwin, 12 years of age, daughter of J. Baldwin, postoffice inspector, drowned before she could be brought to shore.

The young girl was wading with her sister, a year younger, when the dangerous tide started to run. The younger girl managed to reach the beach, while Dorothy was carried several feet to sea. Her cries were heard by Charles Hawkins, who lives near the Baldwin home on Virginia avenue, who immediately swam to the girl's assistance. When she was brought ashore she was unconscious.

All methods of resuscitation by C. W. Craik and Joseph Saplin, local physicians, and the use of adrenalin and a pulmotor failed to revive the unconscious child. She was not pronounced dead until an hour after her body had been removed from the surf.

The Baldwin family came to Venice less than a week ago for a summer vacation.

The young girl's body was removed to the Sharp & Nolan mortuary in this city.

DR. RYDER'S LAST RITES ARE TODAY

Author, Lecturer and Actor Will be Buried from Church of Angels

Funeral services for Dr. Maxwell Ryder, actor, author, lecturer and authority on classic English, will be conducted at 10 a.m. today at the Church of the Angels. Dr. Ryder had been a Southern California resident for ten years and died at Lehigh, London, 11.

He was born in England and was for a time a member of Sir Henry Irving's company at the Lyceum Theater, London. He received a degree of LL. D. from Oxford University. He was later a lecturer in the English department at Harvard; at Los Angeles, he was for a time on the staff at Universal City. He wrote many books on dramatic art and a number of plays. In later years he was best known for his dramatic readings from Dickens. He leaves his widow, Zuriel Libby Ryder.

In a recent report it was revealed that there is more crime in the United States, in proportion to population, than in England and Canada, and fewer of those who commit crimes are apprehended.
